TESTIMONIES

CYIA A Hands-on Way to Learn and Do - Director Dan Dunkerley

Why do I do what I do? The Apostle Paul answered that in II Corinthians 5:14a when he said, "For the love of Christ controls us...". The love of Christ controls me! My life has been a kaleidoscope of God working through me and through many different people: parents, camp counselors, pastors, and colleagues.

I wanted to serve Christ with all my heart and soul. To do that I began to step out in small ways; sharing devotions in youth group and relating Bible truths to my family and friends.

But what prepared me the most for service was learning alongside mature believers by doing!!!

- I sought God's leading
- I Stepped out by faith
- I started simply
- I stayed faithful

CYIA offers youth an opportunity to learn in a similar way – through Discipleship & Doing. CYIA accomplishes this by providing students with the tools and the confidence they need to share their faith with children of all ages.

Are there young people at your church who want to grow in the Lord through discipleship and doing? Please prayerfully consider registering for CYIA.

Park Day Fun! - Good News Club Students

We asked Good News Club students what they thought about Park Day. Here is what they said:

My favorite part of park day was the games because I remember when we were back at the multipurpose room we always got to do the game time at the beginning. I liked learning about the strongest animals during the bible verse. - David Good News Club Student

My favorite part of Park day was when I got to worship. My favorite part of worship was the dancing! I am excited for the next park day! My favorite part of the lesson was when Jesus calmed the water. - Linda Good News Club Student
